NorQuest Students Visit with Premier Stelmach

Diane Duncan, Humanities Prep 2 Instructor

What an exciting day for Humanities Prep2 class on Friday, July 24! One of the curriculum topics is provincial government, and what better way to introduce the topic than a tour of our own Legislative Building.

Our guide, Ben, accompanied our tour and the students were awe struck by the magnificence of the front foyer and first floor marble columns and fountain just inside the entrance.

As we made our way to the second floor and Ben pointed out the portraits of past Premiers, he suddenly noticed Premier Stelmach entering his office. He pointed this out to the students and being a little excited about seeing the Premier they all waved and then the very unexpected happened. Premier Stelmach turned around and came to talk to our students. Well, he made their day and mine as well.

The best part was he didn't just say hello and ask where we were from but he stayed and told us the story of how the Alberta Treasury Branch banking system came into being. He seemed genuinely pleased to meet our students and stood and talked with us for about 10 minutes. I could not believe the excitement the Premier generated with our students – they really were on cloud nine for the rest of the tour. Ben, our guide, told us in the two years he has worked as a tour guide he has never seen the Premier visit with a touring group.

"I AM"

By: Gerard D.M Amani

I am Gerard a strong survivor.
I wonder what does the future has in store for me.
I hear the sound of fear.
I see struggles along the way.
I want to overcome them, but it's not that simple.
I am Gerard a strong survivor.
I pretend that I don't care.
I feel like giving up.
I touch the sky.
I worry of what God thinks of my life.
I cry for life to change.
I am Gerard a strong survivor.
I understand I must agree to how life is.
I say I'm not alone.
I dream big
I try not to beg
I hope to find help along the way.
I am Gerard a strong survivor.

What happened in July...

Foosball - Students were getting ready for the upcoming Foosball Tournament August 10th-14th. Students can sign up for the tournament in room #823. There will be prizes awarded for first, second and third place.

mynorquest.ca - Students' Council members were busy in July getting ACE students in the mynorquest.ca pilot project logged into their accounts. College wide email will be available to all students in September.

Capital Ex Parade - The Students' Association hosted a concession during the Capital Ex parade on July 16th to raise money for the NorQuest College Foodbank. With beautiful weather and droves of parade watchers the concession was a huge success; raising more than $600 for the foodbank.
